The Chocolate Cake Design Collective

Detroit, MI | July 2011 - November 2012

Co-Founder

Setting up shop in a former toy factory, Chocolate Cake Design is a collective of like-minded artists and friends who desire a maker's space - a welcoming, communal environment - where they could work and learn together. Comprised of members with diverse backgrounds and aspirations, Chocolate Cake Design is united by a desire to collaborate and grow as artists - and ultimately to contribute to the renewed cultural vitality of Detroit.

Experience

Roundarch Isobar

Detroit, MI | February 2013 - Present

Visual Designer

Art direction and web design for GM's digital in-market OLA. I work primarily on GMC, Buick and Cadillac.

Team Detroit - Ogilvy

Dearborn, MI | June 2010 - February 2013

Jr. Art Director

Started off as an Intern post graduation and became full time in January 2011, 6 months shy of the duration of my internship. As part of the Ford Customer Service Division, I created campaigns and developed national point-of-sale ads and display materials for Ford dealerships that marketed quarterly events. I was involved with projects from start to final production stages. My art direction responsibilities also included going on out of town photo shoots and working with retouchers and post production studios for TV spots. Brands I've worked on include: Ford Service, Lincoln Service, Quick Lane, Motorcraft and Sync.

Metro Parent Magazine

Ferndale, MI | February 2010 - May 2010

Graphic Design | Illustrator Intern

Worked as part of a small, three person creative team to produce ads for both the web and print. Created magazine layouts and provided editorial illustrations.
